Certificate Course In Leadership Skills
Class B. Com. IV Semester
2023-24

Syllabus : Leadership Skills

Unit 1. Communication

As a leader, you need to be able to clearly and succinctly explain to your employees everything from organizational goals to specific tasks. Leaders must master all forms of communication, including one-on-one, departmental, and full-staff conversations, as well as communication via the phone, email, and social media.

A large part of communication involves listening. Therefore, leaders should establish a steady flow of communication between themselves and their staff or team members, either through an open-door policy or regular conversations with workers. Leaders should make themselves regularly available to discuss issues and concerns with employees. Other skills related to communication include:

- Active listening
- Articulating
- Business storytelling
- Clarity
- Concision

Unit 2. Motivation

Leaders need to inspire their workers to go the extra mile for their organizations; just paying a fair salary to employees is typically not enough inspiration (although it is important too). There are a number of ways to motivate your workers: you may build employee self-esteem through recognition and rewards, or by giving employees new responsibilities to increase their investment in the company. Leaders must learn what motivators work best for their employees or team members to encourage productivity and passion. Skills related to effective motivation include:

- Allowing employee autonomy
- Asking for input
- Assessing the interests of staff
- Convincing

Unit 3. Delegating

Leaders who try to take on too many tasks by themselves will struggle to get anything done. These leaders often fear that delegating tasks is a sign of weakness, when in fact it is a sign of a strong leader.

Therefore, you need to identify the skills of each of your employees, and assign duties to each employee based on his or her skill set. By delegating tasks to staff members, you can focus on other important tasks. Some skills that make a good delegator include:

- Accepting feedback from employees
- Allotting resources for employees
- Assessing employee strengths and weaknesses
- Defining expectations

Unit 4. Positivity

A positive attitude can go a long way in an office. You should be able to laugh at yourself when something doesn't go quite as planned; this helps create a happy and healthy work environment, even during busy, stressful periods.

Simple acts like asking employees about their vacation plans will develop a positive atmosphere in the office, and raise morale among staff members.

If employees feel that they work in a positive environment, they will be more likely to want to be at work, and will therefore be more willing to put in the long hours when needed. Some skills that help make for a positive atmosphere in the workplace include:

- Caring
- Conflict management
- Developing rapport
- Diplomacy

DEPARTMENT OF ENGLISH
CERTIFICATE COURSE IN ENGLISH VOCABULARY
BUILDING
COURSE CODE -CCENG02

Course Description

Are you interested in building your vocabulary? Do you feel that your writing or your speaking vocabulary is below average? The purpose of "Vocabulary Building" is to gripe up your everyday vocabulary with words that you could use in everyday conversation.

A strong vocabulary will not only give you the tools to say and write exactly what you mean it can also help you on a job interview, communicate better with a doctor or your lawyer and certainly help you with school work. A good vocabulary makes you sound smarter, feel more assured and practically guarantees you'll be a better writer and speaker. The purpose of this vocabulary class is to gripe up your everyday vocabulary with words that you could use in everyday conversation. The class is not a beginning or advanced vocabulary course. It's that "in between" course where so many people's vocabulary skills fit. So if you're interested in expanding your vocabulary skills in a self-paced, no stress format where an instructor actually reviews and corrects your sentence writing, why not give it a try? Enrich your life by enriching your vocabulary.

Communication is how we use words to interact with each other. In order to become a successful communicator and to get ahead in life, you probably need to improve your vocabulary to sound composed and professional. Having the proper vocabulary makes you sound smarter and feel more assured, because the ability to say exactly what you mean, using and pronouncing essential words correctly, gives you power and status.

Most people don't want to think about memorizing boring vocabulary lists; and how are you supposed to remember 1,000 words in alphabetical order? And don't we all hate the idea of flash cards? How can anyone guess the words you most need to know? That would really be impossible. The words in this course are the kind of words that upper-middle school and high school teachers incorrectly assume that students already know. They are not too hard, not too easy.

Making an effort to improve your vocabulary can pay off in a number of important ways:

- Strengthening your writing skills

- Improving your public speaking presence
- You'll sound smarter
- Your confidence will soar
- Your horizons will be broadened

As long as you have middle to high school reading level and an earnest desire and commitment to learn, by the time you complete this course, you'll have a broader vocabulary and greater confidence in your written and verbal skills.

Across a total of 15 comprehensive lessons (complete with links, resources and other reading materials) you'll add nearly 200 new words to your working vocabulary. More than that, though, you'll be provided with a simple and effective way to add even more words by learning the essentials of reading in context.

In the end, your results are five-fold:

- To learn nearly 200 new words or phrases
- To unearth the secret of reading in context
- To know and use the words both in general conversation and in written sentences
- To establish a pattern of memorizing any new words you'll come across
- Increasing your confidence and comfort level when using new words.

Certificate Course in English Vocabulary Building (CCENG02)

REPORT 2023-24

It is a matter of immense pleasure that Certificate Course in English Vocabulary Building was introduced in the college from 2019-20 with the purpose to enhance students' vocabulary development skills and make them employable and competent enough in this ever-growing competitive era. This course was for all first-year students from any streams. The classes were held from 08/01/2024 to 24/01/2024 i.e. 15 days. The classes were engaged 1.5 hrs daily and thus the course was conducted for 23 hrs. Dr S G Chaudhari, Associate Professor in English and the Coordinator of this course has conducted the classes. Total 55 students were enrolled for the course. All the students appeared for the exam held during and at the end of the course. A formal concluding programme for the course was also organized by the students on 24/01/2024. It was presided over by Dr D H Gahane, Principal. Dr S M Shekokar, Vice-Principal, Dr M A Sheikh, Head Department of English, Prof M A Pathade, Dr Y N Meshram, Dr Sunil Chaudhari, Coordinator of this course were prominently present on the dais. It was found that many students acquired vocabulary skill. Many of them used difficult and alternative words while writing their assignments and test papers. All the students passed in the course as follows: -

1. No. of students who secured A+ grade (above 90%)	-	05
2. No. of students who secured A grade (above 80%)	-	28
3. No. of students who secured B+ grade (above 70%)	-	18
4. No. of students who secured B grade (above 60%)	-	04
5. No. of students who secured C+ grade (above 50%)	-	00
