Subject: To include Basic English Grammar course in Humanities programme

Respected Sir,

I am submitting a proposal for including Basic English Grammar course in Humanities programme. Students from our college has been demanding since last many days that new advanced and beneficial topics should be included in the syllabus in order to get prepared for competitive examinations. Compared with other state universities, we have covered fewer challenging topics in our syllabus.

I, along with English professors, have prepared a model syllabus where Basic English Grammar course is included. We are sending it for your kind reference.

Kindly consider our proposal and fulfill the demands of the students.

Thanking you.

Yours faithfully,

Dr D.H.Gahane
