Sports Policy

Introduction :

Sports is an integral part of social development that needs to be encouraged. At N.H. College Sport dept. Sports or any activity leading to physically active life style are considered important components of overall personality development. We encourage staff and students to participate in physical activities and sports, as we firmly believe in benefits. Our aim to produce young men and women's who are physically active and who play with good sportsmanship and are competitive every time they step into the field. We intend to teach our students to be committed to their team and take responsibility for their actions. In order to bring the awareness amongst the students we intend to draw a "N.H. College sports policy".

Aim of the Sports Policy :

The main objective of the College Sports policy is to include sports as an important part of the overall curriculum offered by the college to its students.
