Dear Sir,

I am in receipt of your letter about extending the research collaboration. It gives me an immense pleasure to read that you are willing to carry out a part of research work with me. Recognizing the importance of research in the field of luminescence through the development of nanomaterials, I am willing to work in collaboration with you. I shall be very happy to share our expertise with your students in the field of nanomaterials for luminescence studies. I am extremely glad and welcome your research students for the experimental and characterization facility available in our laboratory.

Best wishes for your future frontline research work.

Thanking you.
